ABOUT

I am a young filmmaker, with enthusiasm that has seen me write and direct multiple short films. My love for filmmaking has led me to write multiple scripts to refine my ability, ranging from short to feature scripts, as well as turn some of them into short films. I have studied Creative Media at college to pursue this passion, which has allowed me to work on film sets as a range of roles including: Director, Art Director and Camera operator. This has also allowed me to work with Kingston International Film Festival where I had many responsibilities as a runner and general worker, to help the festival run smoothly. My keen interest for filmmaking will see me pursue this with determination, working hard until I make this ambition happen.
